96 STAT. 122

PUBLIC LAW 97-200—JUNE 23, 1982

Public Law 97-200
97th Congress

An Act

June 23, 1982
[H.R. 4]

To amend the National Security Act of 1947 to prohibit the unauthorized disclosure of information identifying certain United States intelligence officers, agents, informants, and sources.

Intelligence
Identities
Protection Act of 1982.
50 USC 401 note.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the “Intelligence Identities Protection Act of 1982”.

SEC. 2. (a) The National Security Act of 1947 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new title:

“TITLE VI—PROTECTION OF CERTAIN NATIONAL SECURITY
INFORMATION

“PROTECTION OF IDENTITIES OF CERTAIN UNITED STATES UNDERCOVER
INTELLIGENCE OFFICERS, AGENTS, INFORMANTS, AND SOURCES

50 USC 421.

“SEC. 601. (a) Whoever, having or having had authorized access to classified information that identifies a covert agent, intentionally discloses any information identifying such covert agent to any individual not authorized to receive classified information, knowing that the information disclosed so identifies such covert agent and that the United States is taking affirmative measures to conceal such covert agent’s intelligence relationship to the United States, shall be fined not more than $50,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both.

“(b) Whoever, as a result of having authorized access to classified information, learns the identity of a covert agent and intentionally discloses any information identifying such covert agent to any individual not authorized to receive classified information, knowing that the information disclosed so identifies such covert agent and that the United States is taking affirmative measures to conceal such covert agent’s intelligence relationship to the United States, shall be fined not more than $25,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

“(c) Whoever, in the course of a pattern of activities intended to identify and expose covert agents and with reason to believe that such activities would impair or impede the foreign intelligence activities of the United States, discloses any information that identifies an individual as a covert agent to any individual not authorized to receive classified information, knowing that the information disclosed so identifies such individual and that the United States is taking affirmative measures to conceal such individual’s classified intelligence relationship to the United States, shall be fined not more than $15,000 or imprisoned not more than three years, or both.

“DEFENSES AND EXCEPTIONS

50 USC 422.

“SEC. 602. (a) It is a defense to a prosecution under section 601 that before the commission of the offense with which the defendant

PUBLIC LAW 97-200—JUNE 23, 1982

is charged, the United States had publicly acknowledged or revealed the intelligence relationship to the United States of the individual the disclosure of whose intelligence relationship to the United States is the basis for the prosecution.

“(b)(1) Subject to paragraph (2), no person other than a person committing an offense under section 601 shall be subject to prosecution under such section by virtue of section 2 or 4 of title 18, United States Code, or shall be subject to prosecution for conspiracy to commit an offense under such section.

“(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply (A) in the case of a person who acted in the course of a pattern of activities intended to identify and expose covert agents and with reason to believe that such activities would impair or impede the foreign intelligence activities of the United States, or (B) in the case of a person who has authorized access to classified information.

“(c) It shall not be an offense under section 601 to transmit information described in such section directly to the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate or to the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives.

Information,
transmittal to congressional committees.

“(d) It shall not be an offense under section 601 for an individual to disclose information that solely identifies himself as a covert agent.

“REPORT

“SEC. 603. (a) The President, after receiving information from the Director of Central Intelligence, shall submit to the Select Committee on Intelligence of the Senate and the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence of the House of Representatives an annual report on measures to protect the identities of covert agents, and on any other matter relevant to the protection of the identities of covert agents.

50 USC 423.

“(b) The report described in subsection (a) shall be exempt from any requirement for publication or disclosure. The first such report shall be submitted no later than February 1, 1983.

“EXTRATERRITORIAL JURISDICTION

“SEC. 604. There is jurisdiction over an offense under section 601 committed outside the United States if the individual committing the offense is a citizen of the United States or an alien lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence (as defined in section 101(a)(20) of the Immigration and Nationality Act).

50 USC 424.

8 USC 1101.

“PROVIDING INFORMATION TO CONGRESS

“SEC. 605. Nothing in this title may be construed as authority to withhold information from the Congress or from a committee of either House of Congress.

50 USC 425.

“DEFINITIONS

“SEC. 606. For the purposes of this title:

50 USC 426.

“(1) The term ‘classified information’ means information or material designated and clearly marked or clearly represented, pursuant to the provisions of a statute or Executive order (or a regulation or order issued pursuant to a statute or Executive order), as requiring a specific degree of protection against unauthorized disclosure for reasons of national security.

“(2) The term ‘authorized’, when used with respect to access to classified information, means having authority, right, or permission pursuant to the provisions of a statute, Executive order, directive of the head of any department or agency engaged in foreign intelligence or counterintelligence activities, order of any United States court, or provisions of any Rule of the House of Representatives or resolution of the Senate which assigns responsibility within the respective House of Congress for the oversight of intelligence activities.

“(3) The term ‘disclose’ means to communicate, provide, impart, transmit, transfer, convey, publish, or otherwise make available.

“(4) The term ‘covert agent’ means—

“(A) an officer or employee of an intelligence agency or a member of the Armed Forces assigned to duty with an intelligence agency—

“(i) whose identity as such an officer, employee, or member is classified information, and

“(ii) who is serving outside the United States or has within the last five years served outside the United States; or

“(B) a United States citizen whose intelligence relationship to the United States is classified information, and—

“(i) who resides and acts outside the United States as an agent of, or informant or source of operational assistance to, an intelligence agency, or

“(ii) who is at the time of the disclosure acting as an agent of, or informant to, the foreign counterintelligence or foreign counterterrorism components of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; or

“(C) an individual, other than a United States citizen, whose past or present intelligence relationship to the United States is classified information and who is a present or former agent of, or a present or former informant or source of operational assistance to, an intelligence agency.

“(5) The term ‘intelligence agency’ means the Central Intelligence Agency, a foreign intelligence component of the Department of Defense, or the foreign counterintelligence or foreign counterterrorism components of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

“(6) The term ‘informant’ means any individual who furnishes information to an intelligence agency in the course of a confidential relationship protecting the identity of such individual from public disclosure.

“(7) The terms ‘officer’ and ‘employee’ have the meanings given such terms by section 2104 and 2105, respectively, of title 5, United States Code.

“(8) The term ‘Armed Forces’ means the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.

“(9) The term ‘United States’, when used in a geographic sense, means all areas under the territorial sovereignty of the United States and the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands.

“(10) The term ‘pattern of activities’ requires a series of acts with a common purpose or objective.”
